

HADDENHAM 1st SCOUT GROUP NEWS UPDATE

We hope readers continue to keep well and in good spirits.

In the last Scout Group News page, I outlined the plans to restart the face-to-face Cub meetings. Preparations continue in earnest including completion of the very important risk assessments for the planned programme of activities.

I admire and am grateful for the hard work, creativity and sheer determination of our Cub Pack Team, led by Erika Wedgwood (Akela), to get the programme ready for our enthusiastic Cubs. Hopefully, this month will see the start of the active sessions.

Over the past few months we have shared with you two photos of our Scout Group from the past. I have asked if you could shed light on the photos - who, where, when? A few of you have been in touch to provide details.

Many thanks to all of you including Robert Presnell who has pointed me in the direction of the Cambridgeshire Community Archives Network (www.ccan.co.uk).

If you've not visited, it's a wonderful, rich archive to explore. Follow the link to 'Haddenham and Aldreth' and you will find hundreds of photos about life in our rich past - people, places and events.

As a result of your active interest we have managed to fill many of the name gaps for the two photos. Follow the archive link to 'Haddenham and Aldreth' then 'Scouts'.

You may spot members of your family, friends and neighbours in these two fascinating photos of 1st Haddenham Scouting in the past. You may even find your younger self!

Take care

Best wishes
